Senior Associate/Special Counsel

legal.consult is an innovative law firm and communications consultancy seeking an ambitious Senior Associate/Special Counsel who wants a clear path to the top and a share of the rewards from your effort.

You will be working with a diverse range of clients, from companies with a traditional IT&T focus, to those building the next wave of convergent communications including mobile content suppliers and online "broadcasters" and production companies. legal.consult is also committed to assisting non-profit and community organisations.

A minimum of 4 years specialist Technology / Telecommunications / Intellectual Property (IP) experience, technical excellence and a proven track record for delivering high quality, commercially focused advice are a must.

In addition to providing practical legal advice to clients, you will have the opportunity to advise on and contribute to the development of the firm's own technology & communications platforms including its Community Builders®, TXT Addict®, UpStart®, electorate.tv™; and corporate.memory™; services.

As the successful candidate, you will:

- deal directly with clients alongside our Director of legal services
- supervise at least one other solicitor
- have a revenue budget based on 5 billable hours/day
- earn 50% of revenues in excess of that budget (capped, to prevent workaholism!)
- be a team player
- have a flexible work environment
- be based in our new Parramatta office

If you are driven, crave autonomy and innovation and want a more fulfilling career, e-mail hr@legalconsult.com.au or call Andrew Perry on 1300 855 078.

We are always interested in hearing from senior lawyers and consultants who share our vision, and from junior solicitors and consultants just starting out who are looking for some career guidance.
